

NOTICE OF FACULTY POSITION VACANCY

DATE ANNOUNCED:	November 10, 2014
POSITION:	Tenure-track position in Accounting
TITLE:	Assistant Professor of Accounting
STARTING DATE:	August 2015
DEADLINE:	Screening of applications begins immediately and continues until position is filled
QUALIFICATIONS:	Requires a Ph.D. or a relevant master's degree with CPA certification. Ability to teach a variety of undergraduate accounting courses in principles, audit, and managerial accounting plus selections from a pool of classes including advanced, governmental, systems, or tax. Specific course load can be somewhat negotiable. Commitment to student-centered learning and working with a diverse student population. Evidence of successful college-level teaching in accounting and/or professional accounting experience. Promise of continued scholarly activity. Willingness to support the mission of the College and its liberal arts tradition.
RESPONSIBILITIES:	The successful candidate will teach seven undergraduate courses across the fall, winter, and four-week May term; advise departmental majors and minors; develop and teach general education courses as needed.
SALARY:	Competitive
CONTRACT:	Nine-month, tenure track faculty

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: Send letter of application addressing qualifications; statement of philosophy of teaching as it relates to the position; curriculum vita; names, addresses, phone, fax, or e-mail address for three professional references, and transcripts to the Wartburg College Human Resources Office at hr@wartburg.edu. See <http://www.wartburg.edu/hr> for complete information. Candidates will be asked to teach a sample lesson as part of the interview.

Wartburg College is a fully accredited four-year, coeducational liberal arts college of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. As an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity institution, Wartburg College actively seeks applications from women and members of ethnic and minority groups.