

Faculty Position Vacancy

Founded in 1852, Wartburg College is a selective four-year liberal arts college of the Lutheran Church (ELCA), nationally recognized for community engagement. The college offers more than 50 academic majors and pre-professional and certificate programs leading to the bachelor's degree. The Wartburg Community is committed to creating and maintaining a mutually respectful environment that recognizes and celebrates diversity among all students, faculty, and staff. As an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution, Wartburg College actively seeks applications from members of underrepresented groups.

DATE ANNOUNCED: March 2020

POSITION: Assistant Professor of Business Administration - Management

DEPARTMENT: Business Administration, Accounting and Economics

STARTING DATE: Fall Term 2020

TIMELINE: Screening of applications begins immediately with full consideration given to applications received by March 8, 2020.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Required: Master's degree, MBA, or ABD in business-related field, with coursework or experience in management, organizational behavior, and/or marketing related areas
 - Evidence of successful college-level teaching in business and/or professional business experience
 - Ability to teach multiple courses across all levels of organizational management, with additional teaching opportunities in marketing and other principles level business classes; exact course load is negotiable within the department's curriculum
- Preferred: Doctorate or ABD in business-related field, specializing in organizational management, or Masters with relevant certifications
 - Desire to teach courses at all levels of a business management curriculum, including, but not limited to Principles of Management, Non-profit Management, Organizational Behavior and Management, Organizational Leadership, Professional Business Writing, Business Career Preparation, etc.
 - Additional interest in teaching some marketing courses and/or principles level courses across a business curriculum
- Commitment to student-centered learning and working with a diverse student population
- Promise of potential for continued scholarly activity
- Willingness to support the mission of the College and its liberal arts traditions

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Teach seven undergraduate courses across the fall, winter, and four-week May term within the department curriculum
- Advise departmental majors and minors
- Engage in scholarship and service appropriate to the liberal arts setting

SALARY: Competitive for entry-level appointment

CONTRACT: Nine-month, contract; tenure track.

APPLICATION: Curriculum vita, unofficial graduate transcripts, statement of teaching philosophy, contact information for three current references, and a letter of application describing your teaching, scholarship, and service experience/interests and how these will support the mission of Wartburg College, should be sent electronically to: HR@wartburg.edu For specific questions contact Allan Bernard, Chair of Search Committee at (319) 352-8485 or allan.bernard@wartburg.edu. Department webpage: <http://www.wartburg.edu/business>. Further information about the College and the city of Waverly may be found at <http://www.wartburg.edu>.