

Faculty Position Vacancy

Founded in 1852, Wartburg College is a selective four-year liberal arts college of the Lutheran Church (ELCA), nationally recognized for community engagement. The college offers more than 50 academic majors and pre-professional and certificate programs leading to the bachelor's degree. The Wartburg Community is committed to creating and maintaining a mutually respectful environment that recognizes and celebrates diversity among all students, faculty, and staff. As an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution, Wartburg College actively seeks applications from members of underrepresented groups.

DATE ANNOUNCED: April 2022

POSITION: Assistant Professor in Biology

STARTING DATE: Fall 2022

DEADLINE: Screening of applications begins April 29 and continues until position is filled.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Ph.D. by September 2022 in Biology or related discipline; ability to teach upper-level majors' Anatomy and Physiology, other biology courses and willingness to contribute to general education and team-taught courses; dissection experience with a willingness to supervise cadaver dissection; evidence of potential for teaching excellence; promise of continued scholarly activity; and willingness to support the mission of the College. Preference will be given to candidates with college-level Anatomy and Physiology teaching, cadaver dissection experience, health professions advising and research experience, and expertise that complements current faculty.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Teach (the equivalent of) three 14-week undergraduate courses in both fall and winter terms including a two-semester Anatomy and Physiology sequence for majors, with opportunities to rotate into the senior research course and introductory biology, as well as one 4-week May term course; mentor seniors in research; advise students in the health professions; engage in scholarship and service appropriate to the liberal arts setting.

SALARY: Competitive

CONTRACT: Nine-month, tenure-track contract.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

Send curriculum vita, unofficial graduate transcripts, contact information for three professional references, and a letter of application describing your teaching, scholarship, and service experience/interests and how these will support the distinctive mission and institutional learning outcomes of Wartburg College. In the application letter, please also address any experiences you have working with diverse groups of students. This information should be submitted electronically to: HR@wartburg.edu or by regular mail to: Jamie Hollaway, Director of Human Resources, Wartburg College, 100 Wartburg Blvd., Waverly, IA 50677-1003. For specific inquiries contact Stephanie Toering Peters, chair of the search committee (stephanie.toering@wartburg.edu). For further information about the college and the city of Waverly, see <http://www.wartburg.edu>. For information about the Biology Department, see <https://www.wartburg.edu/biology/>. Wartburg College requires a criminal background check for position finalists.

WARTBURG COLLEGE is a selective liberal arts college of the ELCA, nationally recognized for community engagement. As an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution, Wartburg College actively seeks applications from members of underrepresented ethnic and minority groups.